LOCAL BRIEFS

Don't put off your Christmas shopping.

His many friends are glad to see Mr. Paul Garrison out again, after a seige of illness covering several weeks.

Mrs. Harry Abram and two children, who have been visiting relatives in this city, have returned to their home in Rocky Mount.

The regular December meeting of the Woman's Club will be held Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock promptly. Executive meeting at 8:30.

There was a freight wreck of considerable proportion on the Atlantic Coast Line near Mt. Olive yesterday afternoon that delayed passenger travel considerably between here and Wilmington both last night and this morning.

Judge F. A. Daniels, his army of friends will be sorry to learn, had to adjourn Wilmington Superior Court this week on account of illness, which we all hope will be of brief duration. Judge Daniels is at his home here.

There is a very decided and growing sentiment in favor of bringing the County Home to a location nearer to Goldsboro, in order that the sick and indigent inmates may be more convenient to those of our citizens—men and women—who are interested in ameliorating their condition. It is a good move, and the Argus favors the bringing of this Home nearer to the county seat.

The Argus hopes that its Empty Stocking Fund will not fall below last year's receipts; but responses are not coming in rapidly as anticipated, or as is Goldsboro's wont: yet the needs are even greater this season than ever before. The fund closes Saturday afternoon and will be given over to the committee of ladies having it in charge on Saturday evening. Let your responses be forthcoming.

Dr. John Spicer and Mr. Add Holland, who went on a fishing expedition to the coast near Morehead last Saturday, encountered such rough weather that the purpose of their exploit was entirely frustrated, and they were glad to get back home today, and Add is quite loquacious in entertaining his friends upon the subject of the weather on the coast and how beautiful and enticing Goldsboro fitted before his mental vision while he shivered in the chilling blasts and bemoaned that ever he was enticed to leave her cordial portals for such a trip as this.

Give Flowers Christmas

No substitute has yet been found for flowers as gifts of beauty, refinement, and thoughtfulness; nor does anything else fit for so many gift purposes or is so generally acceptable.

If in doubt, give flowers you are sure to be right. There is nothing that can convey your thoughts so beautifully.

Our Roses, Hyacinths, Narcissus, Violets, and Lilies of the Valley diffuse beauty and fragrance in the home for days, and then the mere recollection of them brings smiles of pleasure.

Or give a basket of flowers or plant—our line is complete—and its possession is a constant source of delight.

For a gift send her a corsage, nothing can be more pleasing. Have your friends out of town? Give us their names and addresses and for an amount little more than a telegram we will guarantee the delivery of a fresh Christmas bouquet.

We are "National Florists," and we know how.

The best will be found at
